

William Kenneth (Boots) Macleod, CLJ

William (b: May 04, 1932, d: October 08, 2021) was born in Montreal, and graduated from Stanstead College, Quebec., a school well known for its excellent ice hockey programs. He later became a geologist and worked in the field of asbestos for many years in Quebec. He became a successful business man, establishing turkey, dairy, and christmas tree farms; and also founded a Seniors' home in Thetford Mines, QC.

Honours

- 1988 Commander, Acadia Commandery, Order of Saint Lazarus Canada